“

I met industry professionals at my first ISM event who were there strictly to give back. That was the differentiator in comparison to many other business development meetings that I have attended in the past

— Ibrahim Nwagui – ISM-Houston Marketing Chair

WHAT WE OFFER

LEARNING EVENTS

Designed to cover the latest trends in supply chain management, every year ISMHouston organizes 9 dinner presentations that are delivered to a broad audience in a dinner/conference environment.

Renowned speakers are invited to share their knowledge, challenges and views in supply management whilst covering the full spectrum of industries in Houston. The dinner setting and environment allows for great networking opportunities and peer-to-peer learning.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

ISM-Houston and our partners organize a series of open enrollment training events focused on developing the most critical skills needed by supply management professionals today.

All classroom sessions are open to all members and non-members.

CAREER SERVICES

Our career services program provides the support you need to boost your career. Whether you are searching for a job, seeking mentorship or willing to support others, we have something for you.

NETWORKING ACTIVITIES

ISMHouston hosts regular professional mixers, student events and our signature annual Golf Tournament.

Meet other professionals with common interests, share your stories and challenges; learn from peers in other companies and industries who have overcome challenges similar to yours.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Progress your career by signing up for a leadership or contributor opportunity at ISMHouston. All our positions are filled by volunteers, there are plenty of ways you can contribute.
